AN ACT to empower towns, cities, incorporated villages and counties to raise money for the payment of bounties to volunteers.

The people of the rate of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do mact as follows:

SECTION 1. The qualified electors of each town, city, incorporated village, and the county board of supervisors of each county y, shall have power, at any legal meeting thereof, to vote to raise such aum or sums of money as they may deem necessary for the payment of bounties to volunteers, residents of such town, city, incorporated vil-lage or county, mustered into the military service of the United States or of this state, and shall also have power to offer such bounties and to determine and fix the amount thereof, to be paid to each of such volunteers; and all such sum or sums of money shall be subject to, and paid out on, the order of the board of supervisors of each town, and of the proper auditing board of each city, corporated [incorporated] vil-lage and county: provided, that so greater sum of money shall be voted or raised for the payment of bounty to volunteers by any such county board or electors than has been pledged to them by such county, town, city or incorporated village, or pledged to per-sons advancing the money for such purty, shall have power, at any legal meeting thereof, to vote to appropriate the whole or any part of any sum or sums of money that heretofore has or have been, or hereafter may be, voted or raised by such sown, city, incorporated village or county board of supervisors, under and by virtue of the powers gracted in the act entitled "an act to provide for the assistance of volunteers in the service of the United States government," approved May 25th, 1861, to the payment or liquidation of any sum or sums of money which may have been paid, or to

of money which may have been paid, or to the discharge of any liabilities incurred, by any person or persons, for bounties to vol-ulteers, residents of such town, city, incor-porated village or county, mustered into the military service of the United States or of this state.

Sec. 3. The board of supervisors of each town, and the proper and legally constitu-ted auditing board of each city and incor-porated village, the qualified electors of which shall have voted to appropriate any sum or sums of money, as in the last preceeding [preceding] section mentioned, shall have power to audit and allow all claims and demands of all persons for money paid or liabilities incurred for bounties to volunteers, for the payment and discharge of which such appropriation as aforesaid shall have been made, and to draw orders therefor on the treasurer of such town, city or incorporated village, for the payment of all sums so as aforesaid audited and allowed by them: provided, such orders shall be made payable only out of the mon-eys as aforesaid voted or raised by such town, city or incorporated village, under and by virtue of this act; and provided further, that the county board of supervisors of any county which shall have made any appropriation of moneys under and by virtue of the preceeding [preceding] section, shall have and exercise the same pow ers to audit and allow claims and demands against the county, and to draw orders on the treasurer of such county therefor, as are herein granted to the auditing boards of towns, cities and incorporated villages; and any such county board of supervisors

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-falo view of benefiting the public and dourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them from the iron casting to the smallest pirce, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishmens, and having extensive manufacturing establishmens, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. General Scott's Letter.

There are some reflections that naturally auggest themselves upon reading the letter of Gen. Scott which was presented to democratic meeting in New York, yester-

If the southern traitors will not accept the Crittenden compromise they can have what they ask if the Vallandinghamites get the power.

2d. Who authorized its use by John Van Buren, since the writer of it did not consent? Was it stolen from Mr. Saward, or was he privy to its publicity? There can be no answer to these questions, at

3d. Why should Gen. Scott write to Mr. Seward developing his plan to put down the rebellion? We cannot see, as both of these gentlemen were at Washington, at the date of the letter, in daily consultation. Perhaps Scott and Seward had agreed upon the peace and compromise policy, and Gen. Scott consented to put this endorsement into the hands of the in-coming premier, to influence the president, and to fortify Mr. Seward by his influence in any emergency necessary to carry out the plan. We learn by this letter where the delay and conciliation policy towards the rebels commenced. It also throws light upon the tardy military policy inaugurated by Scott. He evidently had no desire to coerce the rebels to submit to the government, and therefore did not fight them with any vigor. When he was compelled to vacate his position, he nominated his successor, McClellan, whom he declared "understood the great ques. gards, tion," and who has carried on the war ac-

IN PURSUIT OF PRITE AND VAN DORN'S DEFEATED }
ARMY, Forty miles outh of Corinth, Oct. 9. } Messas. Entrons :- Long before you receive this you will get the news of the great battle of Corinth on the 3d and 4th, in which the enemy got terribly whipped and ed, wounded, and prisoners. We are picking them up by hundreds every day and are still in pursuit. We have captured most of his train, and his entire ammunition train and all his camp and garrison equipage, besides a number of guns and cassions, and at least 10,000 stand of small arms. It is the worst defeated army of the war. The roads are strewn for miles with guns, wagons, tents, camp chests, and everything pertaining to a well organized army, but the of the northwest. Many men of our army have laid down their lives on that bloody field for the defence of their country and constitutional liberty. Of our regiment there were 93 killed and vounded; of my company, wounded, W. J. E. McNair, in leg, slightly; David Harvy, neck, sovere ; Julius Tramblie, slight ; H. J. Philips, knee and foot; Julius Love, knee, severe; C. E. Robbins were both wounded, the Major slightly, and he is with the regiment. My horse was shot on the field in the first days engagement, while standing by his head holding him. The bullets flew very thick and I dismounted for safety, and was ordering the left wing where to direct their fire, when my horse was shot. H. J. Phil pursuit, and are in hopes of capturing the whole rebel army of the southwest. We have scattered them terribly. Yesterday we attacked their rear and ,took some hundreds of prisoners, who say they have had nothing to eat for three days, and report the whole army in a terribly demoralized condition. In telling you that we whipped them terribly, it is but due to them to say that they fought with a bravery scarcely known in the annals of war. They charged our fortifications of seige guns three times up to the walls; and on one of our forts they at one time planted their flag, but could not hold it more than five minutes. All our batteries were so arranged as to be brought to bear on one given point, and the terrible fire that our siege guns and There has been no fighting in Kentucky | field batteries opened on them, along the whole line was awful to witness; besides was a desperate fight, and, although the | thousands of infantry were engaged at the loss on each side was about equal, our for. same time. I thought this the best way of giving all the information I could, under the circumstances, of the casualties in my company; all will get the news at once. We lost in the regiment one in every four engaged, killed and wounded : so you an see we were in the hottest of the fire. All the Wisconsin regiments here were engaged-the 8th, 14th, 16th, 17th and 18th infantry, and several batteries, among them the 12th. Four men were wounded in the latter, but none of the Janesville boys.

I am well, as are Lieuts. King and Sargent. Only thirty of my company are here now. Some have given out from fatigue of the severe marching and hardships they have endured for the last month. The regiment has for duty, to day, 300 men, out of 965 one year ago.

I must now close, as the men have had little rest, and we will soon move. My best wishes to all, hoping we may ever be victorious and soon bring this strife to a close. I am yours, with the kindest re-W. B. DRITTON,

Where so many excellent men were candidates, there was but little choice, and the chances are that the independant candidates, however worthy, will be no improvement upon the regular candidates-while their running could but hazard the election of regular candidates without holding any show on their own behalf, victory was dearly won by the noble sons yet siding the election of anti war demo-

In alluding to the call for a "union" congressional conventiod in the 31 district, the Grant County Herald comes, as usual, directly to the point. It says:

It worked badly and he left it, and has since joined the Ryan democracy. The product of last year's Union third party was a few assemblymen who possessed the least intellect and moral principle of any men ever seen in the state, and the greatest disorganizers. They voted, while in the assembly, with the democrats, against nearly all the measures demanded by the government for the war. They are a segment of disunion, the Crittenden and Bell compromisers, and still hope to restore the Union half slave, half free, or any other way to suit the reb-

According to dispatches from Chambersburg, the rebel Stuart declared there that he would pass entirely around McClellan's army, returning by Gettysburg and Edwards' Ferry. Other accounts, however, sent him by other roads, and it is not known here, for a certainty, in what direction he actually went. His force was 3,500 cavalry and four guns. He captured a squad of men belonging to the signal corps, on the Fairview Mountains and Mercers burg. He took all the good horses he could lay his hands upon, leaving his wornout ones behind. He emptied clothing, hat, boot and shoe stores. He arrived at Chambersburg at 7 o'clock Friday evening. and after taking what he could carry away, ncluding the new uniforms, with which he lothed his men, leaving their rags behind er number by skirmishes, seiges, battles them, burned the railroad station, government warehouse, containing several thousand stand of arms and a quantity of government stores, railroad machine shops,

Herald's special .- A rumor has been cur-

There is not a word of truth in the re-rent, to-night, that a large force of rebels had crossed into Maryland and been defeat-port. It is said that the failure to arrest

the escape of Stuart and his bold rebel cav-

Maryland, is attributed to the division commander at Poolesville, to whom instructions had been sent by McClellan, stating that

Stuart would probably retreat upon the line which he subsequently pursued, and suggested a disposition of forces which would inevitably cut off his passage across the Potomac. A strict investigation is now being conducted about it, with a view of

From Kentucky.

There has been no fighting in Kentucky since the battle of last Wednesday. That was a desperate fight, and, although the loss on each side was about equal, our forces were victorious. The loss on our side was 466 killed, 1463 wounded, and 161 missing. The enemy left 2000 wounded at ful slaughter. Graps and canister were Harrodsburg. Bragg, with his combined forces, has retreated across the Kentucky river and occupied Camp Dick Robinson, where he will probably make a stand, as it is a very strong place.

The report of Col. Starkweather will be read with pride by Wisconsin people, al. double-quick with yells that made the welthough sorrow and mourning are carried to | kin ring. Our batteries then opened over many households for the fallen. The brave our heads with shell, which was kept up for Badger boys fought like heroes, and many a long time, killing men three miles away attested their devotion to their country with their lives.

General Scott's Letter.

There are some reflections that naturalter of Gen. Scott which was presented to over a mile by the flank along the line, democratic meeting in New York, yester-

1st. Why is it now published? Evidently to sustain the democrats in a peace policy, based upon concessions to the rebels. If the southern traitors will not accept the Crittenden compromise they can have what they ask if the Vallandinghamites get the power. 2d. Who authorized its use by John

Van Buren, since the writer of it did not consent? Was it stolen from Mr. Seward, or was he privy to its publicity? There can be no answer to these questions, at present.

3d. Why should Gen. Scott write to Mr. Seward developing his plan to put down the rebellion? We cannot see, as both of these gentlemen were at Washington, at the date of the letter, in daily consultation. Perhaps Scott and Seward had agreed upon the peace and compromise policy, and Gen. Scott consented to put this endorsement into the hands of the in-coming premier, to influence the president, and to fortify Mr. Seward by his influence in any emergency necessary to carry out the plan. We learn by this letter where the delay and conciliation policy towards the rebels commenced. It also throws light upon the tardy military policy inaugurated by Scott. He evidently had no desire to coerce the rebels to submit to the government, and therefore did not fight them with any vigor. When he was compelled to vacate his position, he nominated his successor, McClellan, whom he declared "understood the great question," and who has carried on the war according to "Scott's tactics."

The programme laid down in this letter was much changed by the attack on Fort Sumter, which made concession to the rebels at that time impossible, as the people would not hear to it. Now, it is thought they have been sufficiently wearied and dis- liquor, must take out also the license of a gusted by losses, disasters and delays, to listen again to the Crittenden or some other compromise, and the name of General Scott is used by the secession plotters in the north to carry their project, through a triumph of the democratic party at the pending elections.

RESCUED .- Col. Sibley, in command of the expedition against the Indians, in Minnesota, reported, on the 5th inst., to Gen. Pope, that he had 107 white captives, and 162 half-breeds, rescued from the Indians -making a total of 259.

PERSONAL.—Gov. Salomon returned to Madison from the east on Saturday last.

Correspondence of the Januaville Daily Gazette.

IN PURPUIT OF PRITE AND VAN DORN'S DEFEATED ARMY, Forty miles outh of Corinth, Oct. 9. MESSRS. EDITORS :- Long before you reeive this you will get the news of the great battle of Corinth on the 3d and 4th, in which the enemy got terribly whipped and ed, wounded, and prisoners. We are picking them up by hundreds every day and are his train, and his entire ammunition train and all his camp and garrison equipage, besides a number of guns and cassions, and at least 10,000 stand of small arms. It is the worst defeated army of the war. The roads are strewn for miles with guns, wagons, tents, camp chests, and everything pertaining to a well organized army, but the victory was dearly won by the noble sons of the northwest. Many men of our army have laid down their lives on that bloody field for the defence of their country and constitutional liberty.

Of our regiment there were 93 killed and wounded; of my company, wounded, W. J. E. McNair, in leg, slightly; David Harvy, neck, severe ; Julius Tramblie, slight ; H. J. Philips, knee and foot; Julius Love, knee, severe : C. E. Hine, both arms, right arm amputated : Joseph Kane, leg, slight ; G. T. Stickney, leg, slight; J. Stephenson, arm; W.C. Brown, thigh, severe; T Bowles and John Dave. Major Jefferson and Lt. Col. Robbins were both wounded, the Major slightly, and he is with the regiment. My horse was shot on the field in the first days engagement, while standing by his head holding him. The bullets flew very thick and I dismounted for safety, and was ordering the left wing where to direct their fire, when my horse was shot. H. J. Phil ips had seven bullets pass through his clothing, two took effect. I am now second in command of the regiment. We are traveling day and night in pursuit, and are in hopes of capturing the whole rebel army of the southwest. We have scattered them terribly. Yesterday we attacked their rear and took some hundreds of prisoners, who say they have had nothing to eat for three days, and report the whole army in a terribly demoralized condition. In telling you that we whipped them terribly, it is but due to them to say that they fought with a bravery scarcely known in the annals of war. They charged our fortifications of seige guns three times up to the walls; and on one of our court house. All was quiet. Judge Vilas forts they at one time planted their flag, was coming down the steps. He said the but could not hold it more than five minutes. All our batteries were so arranged as to be brought to bear on one given point, and the terrible fire that our siege guns and field batteries opened on them, along the whole line was awful to witness; besides thousands of infantry were engaged at the same time. The rebels charged the whole line for two miles, three times in succession, and were repulsed each time with awpoured into their ranks for four hours con- to order and read the call. tinually on Saturday, in front, and the batteries on both flanks continually sending 30 and 64 pound shell among them. At last they gave way and the whole line skedaddled. Our troops followed them at from the forts. The 8th Wisconsin and 26th Illinois were ordered from our division in the heat of the engagement, on Saturday, to strengthen and support Gen. Davies, 6th division of ting proceedings. We want to know whethly suggest themselves upon reading the let- the army of Tennessee, and had to march er them asses, expected by Judge Vilus, and saw some terrible sights that day of ted the Judge to represent them at the dend and wounded lying over the entire polls.

> I have not written to Mrs. Britton yet, but will the first opportunity; she must consider this to her, as well as all the friends and relatives of my company. I thought this the best way of giving all the information I could, under the circumstances, of the casualties in my company; all will get the news at once. Our men lost all their blankets and knapsacks in the first day's engagement. When this will reach you, I cannot say; I probably will have an opportunity to send to Corinth soon.

We lost in the regiment one in every four engaged, killed and wounded : so you can see we were in the hottest of the fire. All the Wisconsin regiments here were engaged-the 8th, 14th, 16th, 17th and 18th infantry, and several batteries, among them the 12th. Four men were wounded in the latter, but none of the Janesville boys.

I am well, as are Lieuts. King and Sargent. Only thirty of my company are here now. Some have given out from fatigue of the severe marching and hardships they have endured for the last month. The regiment has for duty, to day, 300 men, out of 965 one year ago.

I must now close, as the men have had a little rest, and we will soon move. My best wishes to all, hoping we may ever be victorious and soon bring this strife to a close. I am yours, with the kindest re-W. B. BRITTON. Capt. in 8th Wis. Vols.

Liquon Licenses .- Commissioner Boutwell, in a letter to the assessor of this district decides that "the license of a wholesale liquor dealer does not authorise the retailing of liquor. The person, therefore, who has such a license, and wishes to retail retail liquor dealer."

Under this decision, Mr. Atwood, the assessor in this district, gives notice that persous holding wholesale liquor dealer's licenses, and desire to retail the article, will make immediate application to the assistant assessor of the district in which they reside."

REDEMPTION OF POSTAGE STAMPS .- A late Washington dispatch says it is not the intention of the government to refuse to 1,300 killed and 2,000 wounded, among redeem postage stamps that have been used as currency which may be soiled or defaced, though they cannot be received on at Perryville. The 59th Illinois lost 60 mail matter. The redemption of such killed and wounded. The 8th Indiana has stamps will be provided for hereafter.

The Democratic Programme.

The Grant County Heraid, speaking of the political movements in that county, says;

"A letter from the west part of the county says secession sympathizers are using every influence to bring out independent candidates in view of drawing slaughtered. How many men he lost it is enough votes to secure the election of antiimpossible to tell, but at least 10,000 kill- war democrats to the county and assembly offices. No true friend to the government and union can favor such factious conduct these perilous times. The county convenstill in pursuit. We have captured most of tion, a body of as good and faithful citizens as ever met together in this county, have nominated a ticket of as good men as were ever selected. Where so many excellent men were candidates, there was but little choice, and the chances are that the inde pendant candidates, however worthy, will be no improvement upon the regular candidates-while their running could but hazard the election of regular candidates with out holding any show on their own behalf, yet aiding the election of anti war demo erats."

The same result is sought to be attained in this county, but the mode of operation here is the "union" movement. We don't believe many republicans will be caught in as soon as possible. "the trap" set for them by their enemies. Hitting the Nail on the Head.

In alluding to the call for a "union" congressional conventied in the 31 district, the Grant County Herald comes, as usual, directly to the point. It says:

"Judge Vilas, a sort of superannuated old democratic steed of Madison, is runing this machine for the help of the Ryan democratic party. Last year Pump Car-penter run it upon some sort of terms. It worked badly and he left it, and has since joined the Ryan democracy. The product of last year's Union third party was a few assemblymen who possessed the least intellect and moral principle of any men ever seen in the state, and the greatest disorgan izers. They voted, while in the assembly, with the democrats, against nearly all the measures demanded by the government for the war. They are a segment of disunion, the Crittenden and Bell compromisers, and still hope to restore the Union half slave. half free, or any other way to suit the reb

MASS Union Congressional Convenriox.—A call has been published sometime for a mass congressional convention, to be held at Madison, Oct. 13th, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for this district. A mass county convention was also called for Dane county, at the same place, an hour later. The Madison Journal thus reports a portion of the proceedings:

At 3 o'clock our reporter visited the masses had not arrived, but would probably come on the cars. Our reporter there upon left.

At 4 o'clock he returned. He then found three persons present besides Judge V. to participate in the convention, and, including himself, twelve spectators. The mempers of the convention were ex-Police Jus tice Braley, Mr. Gregory, and Mr. Geo. F Hastings, all of this city. This gave one for chairman, one for secretary, and one to make motions. After waiting some time, no more masses appearing, Judge Vilus called the meeting On motion of Mr. Gregory, Mr. Braiey was called to the chair. Mr. B. acknowledged the compliment; said he abandoned none of his principles or views as a democrat; but nevertheless thought he could consistently go into the union movement.

Mr. Gregory moved that Geo. F. Hr.stings act as secretary.
Mr. Hastings declined.

Mr. Gregory moved that Mr. Pulciferwho had just come in—act as secretary. Mr. Pulcifer declined.

DRAFTING TROUBLES IN INDIANA .- The democratic rebel sympathisers in Blackford county who resisted the draft and destroyed the enlistment roll and ballots were soon brought to terms by the military authorities. Eight of the rioters, including the sheriff, were arrested, and the others promised to give themselves up the next day .-The draft in the county was enforced on the 9th without difficulty.

Harris Reynolds, a leading democrat in Fountain county, attempted to interfere with the execution of the draft in that councavalry in the service. ty and was arrested. Two companies of the 63d Indiana arrived in time to protect the commissioner, and Reynolds, as good luck and justice would have it, was the third who attacked us on Thursday, chased nine men to Middleburg, but could find no more. man drafted.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS .- Elections for members of congress are held to day in there. Pennsylvania, Iowa, Ohio, Minnesota, Indiana, and New Jersey.

The democratic party in Vermont, never formidable, grows small by degrees, and beautifully less. The official vote for governor, at the recent election, stands, 29,, 543; Smalley, 3,772.

PARDONED .- Chauncey Curtiss, who was convicted in the circuit court of Fond du Lac county, May 21st, 1862, and sentenced to two years imprisonment, in the state prison, has been pardoned.

George Hyer, one of the editors of the Madison Patriot, is a candidate for the assembly in the Madison city district. As this is a democratic district, George don't favor a "union" movement there.

THE DRAFT IN NEW YORK .- The draft will take place in the state of New York this week. Twenty-five thousand men are wanted to fill up the quota. The number for New York city will be about 6,000.

Cassius M. Clay said in bis speech at Brooklyn, Tuesday night, that the Emperor Alexander had again and again said to him, "be sure that you always find me true to the United States of America."

THE LOSS AT PERRYVILLE,-The rebels admit a loss at Perryville on Wednesday of whom are one general officer and fourteen colonels. We have about 2,300 wounded 33 killed and 95 wounded.

Last Night's Report.

Headquarters 28th Brigade, Battle Field, } Chaplin Hill, Ky., 10.h, vin Louisville, 13th. } Hon. E. Salomon: The old lat, and 21st Wisponsin, of my brigade, marched twelve miles on the 8th inst., going into battle at 12 m., and fighting notil 7 p. m., with losses as follows: let Wisconsin 58 killed, 127 wounded, 13 missing, and 12 prisoners, taken while bringing the wound-ed from the field at night time under a flag of truce; 21st Wisconsin, 35 killed, 98 wounded, and 54 missing. Lieut. D. W. Mitchell, Capt. Bentley and Major Schumacher, of the 21st, are dead. Col. Sweet is severely wounded, but will live. The surgeon savs Major Mitchell, of the 1st, is severely wounded, may lose his leg; Capt. Green, Co. K, shot through neck, is doing well; Lieut. Wise, Co. F, shot through leg; Lieut. Hammerock, Co. E, shot in der; Lieut. Gallagher, Co. B, a prisoner. Will send a fall-list of killed and wounded

The lat Wisconsin took the colors of the 1st Tennessee. The 21st Wisconsin and 79th Pennsylvania held their position, as also the 24th Illinois, protecting my two batteries, drove the enemy from the field piling up the dead rebels in heaps upon heaps. All did well, the fighting of the 1st Wisconsin is in every one's mouth, all proclaiming it the veteran regiment. Gen. McCook claims that the 28th brigade saved the day, and turned the tide of battle against the enemy. Our loss is fearful, but all did nobly, and no flinching, no cowardice shown by any of the Wisconsin troops. The 10th and 24th Wisconsin were in the fight, both colonels safe. The 10th suffered severely; the 24th lost four only, as I am told.

The loss in my brigade, the 28th, killed wounded and missing, will number eight handred men, as near as it can now be ascertained. On making up my official re port I will send you a copy when finished The battle was a terrible one. The enemy was defeated. We now occupy the pos tion occupied by them, and will undoubted ly move on. Our wounded need attention and assistance. Any one coming to Maxville, Ky. will soon find the wounded. We buried the dead last night on the battle field. The ist fought some of the same men that they met at Falling Waters. All glory to Wisconsin troops! All honor to the veteran lst and 21st! Papers all copy. Yours, on the field.

JOHN C. STARKWEATHER,

Col. 1st Wis., Com'dg 28th Brigade. Indianapolis, Oct. 13.

Special to Chicago Tribune.-To-morrow Indiana elects a state ticket and member of congress. The 8th of January semi secession democracy have been making every effort to carry the state, and one of two additional congressional districts, but notwithstanding nearly 100,000 of Indiana's oyal citizens are now in the field, she will without a doubt, elect the republican ticket and probably gain one congressman.

There is nothing new from Kentucky to day, but it is pretty certain that Bragg and Kirhy Smith have both fallen back to camp Dick Robinson.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. Buell's that they are in close pursuit. A dispatch from Gen. Boyle states that no fighting had taken place since Wednesday last. Col. Rose, U. S. marshal, has arrested quite a number of prominent democratic politicians for resistance to the draft, uttering disloyal sentiments, preventing enlistments, &c. They are in close confine ment, and are becoming quite penitent with the fear of Fort Lafayette before WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

According to dispatches from Chambersburg, the rebel Stuart declared there that he would pass entirely around McClellan's army, returning by Gettysburg and Edwards' Ferry. Other accounts, however, sent him by other roads, and it is not known here, for a cortainty, in what direction he actually went. His force was 3,500 to protect the government within it.

He arrived at Chambersburg at 7 o'clock Friday evening, and after taking what he could carry away including the new uniforms, with which he clothed his men, leaving their rags behind them, burned the railroad station, government warehouse, containing several thousand stand of arms and a quantity of gov-ernment stores, railroad machine shops, and five fine locomotives. ()urarmy is much crippled in power of pursuit by worn out cavalry horses, several regiments being on foot. Farnsworth's cav-alry has done almost all that has been done by cavalry on the upper Potemac. There must be some entire reorganization of the expense quadruple the nett duties of taxes

The Florida direct tax commissioners were receiving their final instructions on their way to the field of operations. A party sent to Aldie to find the cavalry

Another reconnoisance to Leesburg confirmed the report that there is no enemy

A released prisoner from Richmond, s resident of Fairfax, says Jeff. Davis' government is extremely unpopular, and is denounced bitterly. Deserting conscripts confirm this, and say the rebel people, and even soldiers, are getting tired of the war. Our officers, stationed in front of Washington, derive similar impressions from talk with prisoners, in whose tone a great change since a year ago is observable.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.

Special to Chicago Times .- Positive intelligence is received of the successful restock of supplies. Their new position is naturally strong and almost impregnable. The rebels have been fortifying it strongly if unsuccessful in their northern march. Kirby Smith, Heath and Marshall left Frankfort and joined Bragg.

Buell was in possession of Danville on Saturday and Harrodsburg on Sunday.

Perryville reports do not improve favorably for our side. The loss was certainly heaviest on the Union side. The numbers were about equal, the rebels being under Gens. Cheatham, Polk and Hardee. Bragg was not there. His forces were mostly near Danville.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 11, via Cairo 13. Southern dates of the 9th have nothing new in relation to the late battle or army

The Grenada Appeal fears that immense armies will be hurled at once into Mississippi and sweep the state. It thinks the defeat of Bragg probable, and urges the state authorites to assemble the entire militis force to meet the marauders. It ad mits a rebel loss of 5,000 in the late but-

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.] MORNING DISPATCHES.

PHILADELLPHIA, Oct. 13. The Washington Star of this evening says: A man who arrived here this morning from Conrad's Ferry, and states that he was in the presence of Gen. Stuart a few minutes before he crossed the river. art informed him in a sarcastic manner that he had fooled the whole party, but regreticd he had not accomplished intended when he started, as he was expected to reach Frederick, Md., destroy the government stores at that point, then destroy the bridge over the Monocacy, but that all things taken into consideration, be had carried out his programme with much success. Stuart's men and horses looked extremely exhausted, but the former were in high clee. Gen. Stuart sent his compliments to many United States officers whom he had known in former times.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. There is an immense democratic meet ing, to-night, at Cooper's Institute, presided over by Horace F. Clark, assisted by Washington Hunt and others. Speeches were mede by Horatio Seymour, John Van Bu-ren and Richard O'Gorman. A large numper of outside meetings were also held. It is estimated that over 50,000 people were present.

New York, Oct. 13t-At the democratic meeting last night the following important letter was read by John Van Baren, not however with the consent of the author: Washington, March 3d, 1861.

DEAR SIR :- Hoping that in a day or two the new president will have bappily passed through all personal dangers and find him self installed an honored successor of the great Washington, with you as the chief of his cabinet, I beg leave to repeat in writing what I have before said to you orally, this supplement to my printed views in October army since Saturday, and it is supposed last, on the highly disordered condition of our so late happy and glorious Union. meet the extraordinary exigencies of the times it seems that I am guilty of no arrogance in limiting the president's field of selection to one of the four plans of proceedure aubioined :

1st. Throw off the old and assume a new designation, the Union party, adopt the conciliatory measure proposed by Mr. Crittenden or the peace convention, and my life upon it we shall have no new case of secession, but on the contrary an early return of many if not all the states which have already broken off from the Union. With out some equally benign measure the re-maining slave-holding states will probably join the Montgomery confederacy in less than 60 days, when this city being included in a foreign country, would require a per-manent garrison of at least 35,000 troops

2d. Collect the duties on foreign goods outside the ports of which this government has lost the command, or close such ports with 300,000 disciplined men, estimating a third for garrison and a loss of a yet greater number by skirmishes, seiges, battles and southern fevers. The destruction of life and property on the other side would be frightful, however perfect the moral dis-cipline of the invaders, the conquest comoleted at that enormous waste of human life to the north, with at least $250,000,000 added thereto, et cui bono? Fifteen desolated provinces not to be brought into har mony with their conquerors, but to be held for generations with heavy garrisons, at an which it would be possible to extort from them, followed by a protector or an empe-

4th. Say to the seceded states: "Wayward sisters, depart in peace." In haste, I remain, very truly, yours, WINFIELD SCOTT.

To Hon. Wm. H. Seward.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES. Washington, Oct. 13. Herald's special.—A rumor has been our ent, to-night, that a large force of rebels and crossed into Maryland and been defeated. There is not a word of truth in the report. It is said that the failure to arrest the escape of Stuart and his bold rebel cavalry in their dash to Pennsylvania through Maryland, is attributed to the division commander at Poolesville, to whom instructions had been sent by McClellan, stating that Potomac, yesterday, that the enemy had Stuart would probably retreat upon the line which he subsequently pursued, and sug-gested a disposition of forces which would nevitably cut off his passage across the Potomac. A strict investigation is now being conducted about it, with a view of fixing the guilt and assigning punishment where it is merited. From the facts al ready made public it is evident that Gen McClellan took proper measures to prevent the return of Stuart to Virginia, and the fault must be with the subordinate officers who failed to obey his orders and appreciate his suggestions. New York, Oct. 14.

Tribune's special.—The modified rumors of cabinet and military changes are uncunded. The Times' Harper' Ferry letter confirms the statement that a forward movement of the army is determined upon. The Herald's Washington special says

DEATH OF CAPT, GEORGE BENTLEY .-Among the saddest disasters of the late battle near Perryville is the death of Capt. George Bentley of company -, 21st regiment. The company of Capt. B. was main ly recruited from the employees of the Chiengo and Northwestern Railway, and is a body of unusually active, intelligent and courageous men. In all these qualities of a soldier, no man in the company was more richly endowed than its captain, and no one better fitted to lead it. His death in the first battle in which he was engaged is a loss that will not be easily repaired. He was about 30 years of age, and had been in the employment of the railroad company for seven years, baving charge of the "But-1.r" when he left the company to enter the service of his country. Judann's Mourainin Harb Pills,—How strangs and wonderful it often seems to us that a medicine composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so certainly search out and cure disease. How surprising that the Indians should knew and preserve so long and well a secret that has excepted the search of the greatest physicians the world has ever seen. True, the ancient inhabitants of Siexico werenstrangs race, found by the 5p miards living in large cities, said allowing for their strange customs and religion as well civilized as their conquerors. In the words of a writer of some celebrity, "They have perished from the carth, their cities are gigantic piles of ruins, their Kings and Princes so mighty in their life, are forgetten; their ruins and their medicine alone are left," The united testimony of all intelligent persons is, that JUBSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are the most successful medicine in the world in curing disease. Fourth Assembly District.

A Republican Convention for the 4th Assembly Dis crict, composed of the city and town of Beloit and the town of Turtie, will be held at the Council Room in the city of Beloit, on Thursday, the 16th day of October, 1862, at 2 o'clock p. m., to put in nomination a candidate for Assemblyman for said district. The representation of the city and each town will be the same as at the last county convention. JOHN BANNISTER, WM. S. YOST. M. R. TREAT, District Committee.

Beloit, Oct. 6, 1862.

Benefit for the Ladies' Aid Society.

Don't forget the benefit at Lappin's Hall ciety. You will have a good entertainment much to demand that the culprit should to night for the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid So. and help a most worthy object. Let the suffer the penalty of his crime. Teachers hall be filled.

TO THE FRIENDS OF COMPANY E, 13TH REGIMENT .- Lieut. Hart has just arrived from the regiment, and will take back the compelled to leave Kentucky, however, and overcoats belonging to company F, if the finally found a home in Arkansas, and purfriends will leave them at Mr. Eldred's chased a plantation near Helena. He was grocery store in this city, any time before next Saturday night, and such other small packages as they may desire to send. Lt. regiment; but he was not fated to die at Donelson, in good health. There were only fifteen or twenty in the hospital, and none of those dangerously sick.

THE BILL PAID.—We are informed that the bill for bringing the body of the late James Armstrong to this city has been paid by his brother.

DEATH OF CAPT. GEORGE BENTLEY .-Among the saddest disasters of the late battle near Perryville is the death of Capt. George Bentley of company -, 21st regiment. The company of Capt. B. was mainly recruited from the employees of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, and is a body of unusually active, intelligent and courageous men. In all these qualities of a soldier, no man in the company was more richly endowed than its captain, and no one better fitted to lead it. His death in the first battle in which he was engaged is a loss that will not be easily repaired. He was about 30 years of age, and had been in the employment of the railroad company for seven years, having charge of the "But-1.r" when he left the company to enter the service of his country. His wife who is now a resident of this city, was on the cars on her way home from a visit to friends in Woodstock, when she received the news of her husband's death. Who that has not suffered it, can realize the crushing nature of the announcement made to her?

We shall bereafter receive a fuller report of the circumstances connected with the death of Capt. B. than the telegraphic annonneement now in the possession of his friends. By his death, Lieut. Fred. Clark of this city is left in command of the company.

FAMILY GROCERY STORE .- Parritt & Storey are now laying in a very large stock of family groceries, and preparing for the active winter trade in prospect for them. Among their new goods are New Orleans sugars and molasses, and a general assortment of everything required in their line of husiness. They are also receiving a large quantity of the best varieties and qualities of apples, and intend to keep fully supplied during the season. Their store is one of the best trading places in the city, both as regards the quality of the articles offered and the prices asked. An advertisement will appear to morrow.

CAPT. DRURY'S BATTERY .- A letter in the New York Times says that the 3d Wisconsin battery, with some fine Parrot guns, is attached to a brigade under Col. Beatty, in Gen. Van Cleve's division, of Crittenden's corps, and that it did good service in the advance of Buell's army, giving the rebels some heavy pills at Floyd's Ford, Mount Washington, and other places on the road southeast of Louisville.

MILITIA ROLLS .- The number of enrollments in Brown county is 1869, now in the service 533, exemptions 539, liable to draft 1,330. In Washington county, 3,548 were returned by the sheriff, and 986 exempted. There is no report of the number of enlistments.

Sat. Clark has been unanimously renominated for the state senute by the democrats of Dodge county. WHEREABOUTS OF THE 280 WISCONSIN. -A private letter received by Mr. A. Flesh of Madison, dated Friday last says the regment was about leaving for Lexington, Kentucky. THE 30TH REGIMENT. - Four or five companies of the 30th regiment, Ccl. Dill, have arrived at Camp Randall. WHY THE DEMOCRATS WISH TO DISFRAN-CHISE THE SOLDIERS .- Out of the 14,524

votes cast by the Pennsylvania soldiers, at the last election, 11,351 were given for the republican candidates. The soldiers are in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war against rebels.

Capt. Eri S. Oakley of the 11th Wisconsin, who has been on a furiough, and Lieut. T. J. Widvey, of the 3d Wisconsin, a paroled prisoner from Richmond, left to day to join their regiments. Lieut, Widver of course will not join his command unless he learns on reaching Washington that he has been exchanged. We regret to hear that Lt. Col. D. C. Poole, of the 12th regiment, has been compelled to return home, in consequence of a renewed attack of disease. We have not seen him since his return, but understand that he is seriously ill.—Madison Journal. Letter from the National Tax Col-

Treasury Department, Office Internst Revenue, \ October 10th, 1862. \ Sir: Your letter of the 3d instant has seen received and contents noted.

In reply to your several queries, I have to state that there is no tax on the admin-istration of an oath and attesting same. Certificates of acknowledgment, attached to mortgages, deeds, &c., form part of said mortgages, &c., and do not require a separate stamp, In answer to your last query, "Can two stamps of a smaller denomination, intended for the same kind of an instrument, be used to make up in the aggregate the amount required by law?" I have to state tbey can.

Respectfully your ob't serv't, GEO. S. BOUTWELL, Com'r. PRILIP A. HOYNE, Esq., U. S. Com'r, Chiengo.

THE END OF A MURDERER. - Mat. Ward, the murderer, has been shot in Arkansas, and is now dead. The history of this man would furnish material for a score of "yellow-covered" volumes. Ward was the brother of Sallis Ward, formerly the wife of T. Bigelow Lawrence, of Boston, and afterwards a female adventurer. A brother having been chastised at school in Louisville, by Mr. Butler, the master, Matt took the earliest opportunity to murder the man. The excitement was terrible; and John J. Crittenden undertook the defense of the assassin. He took pains to remind the jury that the Wards were one of the first famihave never been popular in Kentucky. A verdict of acquittal was rendered, but it seemed as though retribation followed the jurymen. Many of them died violent deaths, within a brief period afterward. Matt was there when Gen. C. E. Hovey arrived.—Matt was afraid of vengeance from the "schoolmaster-soldiers" of the 33d Illinois tober a company of rebel guerrillas seized his negroes, to convey them to Mississippi to work on fortifications. Ward was protecting himself against this spoilation, when one of them fired upon him, wound ing him through the hips, it is supposed mortally.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills.—How strange and wonderful it often seems to us that a mediciae composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so cortainly search cut and care disease. How surprising that the Indians should know and preserve so long and well a secret that has escaped the search of the greatest physicians the world has even seen. True, the ancient inhabitants of Mexico weren strange race, found by the Spanlards living in large cities, and allowing for their strange customs and religion, as well civilized as their companers. In the words of a writer of some celebrity, "They have perished from thoearth, their cities are gignatic piles of ruins, their Kings and Princes so mighty to their life, are forgotten; their runs and their medician alone are left." The united testimeny of all intelligent persons is, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are the most successful medicine in the world in curing disease.
